

To Henry Clay High School freshman Jake Simanek for winning first place in the business plan category at the state GEAR UP competition. Jake, who won while he was an eighth-grader at Leestown Middle School, will present his winning plan – the marketing, distributing and selling of an old family dessert recipe – at the national competition later this school year.