

Taking time to recycle

Thanks to all the new books, workbooks and unpacking that goes on at the start of the year, a lot of cardboard boxes are left behind. Jay Bright at Henry Clay High School asks our faculty for boxes so he can have them recycled. He then collects and collapses them and drops them off at the recycling center – which is not really on his way home. He continues this practice throughout the year. Reduce, reuse and recycle!

Submitted By:
Scottye Eakin, Teacher
Henry Clay High