

To Southern Middle School student Brian Barnott for being named to the Technology Student Association (TSA) Honor Society. The TSA Honor Society is an opportunity for student members to be recognized for their academic achievement, excellence at the local, state and national level in competitive events, and their participation in community service events.