

Grant helps all children participate

Money is now available for children that need help in paying for field trip and extracurricular activity costs thanks to the Community Service Block Grant provided by Community Action Council in partnership with the Fayette County Equity Council.

Grants will be awarded at a minimum of $25 per child and a maximum of $300 per child for participation in fee-based activities that have academic instructional value to students in the district and is granted on a first come, first serve basis. Funding is limited, so apply now by visiting <http://www.fcps.net/equity/csbg.htm>. Applications are due February 1, 2008.
