

My daughter is a third-grader at Julius Marks Elementary and recently had surgery to have her tonsils removed. Her teacher, Jamie Swet, and instructional assistant Jane Hart came by our house after school to visit her. They brought cards from each student in her class and a goodies bag from the teachers. This really lifted my daughter's spirits and made her feel special and loved.

-- Submitted by a grateful parent