

Kudos

To Connor Langley, a sixth-grader at Winburn Middle School, who has been accepted into the People to People World Leadership Forum. Connor will spend his spring break in Washington, D.C., studying leadership and exploring prominent sites, from Capitol Hill to the Smithsonian to Colonial Williamsburg. See www.wflleaders.org for more details.