

Tates Creek logo spotted in comics

Hats off to Tates Creek alum Frank Cummings, who used a school logo in a Blondie comic strip last week.

Cummings, assistant artist on the long-running strip, included the baseball cap and logo in Thursday's drawing in honor of the class of '78 reunion, set for August.

Cummings, who attended the University of Mississippi, works out of his home near Birmingham, Ala. As assistant artist on Blondie since 2004, Cummings draws most of the daily strips.
