

My son and I recently had car trouble in the Glendover Elementary parking lot. While we attended to the car, trying to determine our options, custodian Rick Zudonyi was leaving the school and stopped to ask if he could be of any help. He was very generous and proceeded to help us “get the car off the curb.” I wanted to bring Rick and his actions to your attention. It’s nice for my son to witness such kindness.

-- Submitted by Craig and Tamera Miller, parents