

Key Club recognizes Bryan Station's service

The Bryan Station High School Key Club snagged several honors at the Kentucky-Tennessee District's recent convention in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Caroline White, a junior, was named Outstanding All-Around Key Clubber in the district as well as in Division 10/11.

Bryan Station also picked up:

- First place in the division for Community Service at the Ronald McDonald House;
- Second place in the division in Major Emphasis Program for the club's work with the TATU (Teens Against Tobacco Use) program;
- Third place Single Service in the Platinum Division, for service with the HOPE Center;
- Silver Award, in recognition of donations given to the Ronald McDonald House;
- Outstanding Faculty Adviser: Susan McVey;
- Outstanding Kiwanis Adviser: Andy Terriwilleger.

The Key Club Kentucky-Tennessee District includes most of Kentucky and Tennessee and parts of Georgia and Virginia. The district convention was March 14-16.
