

Kudos

To Paige Barker, a sophomore at Tates Creek High School, who won second place in the Governor's Diversity Essay Contest, which had more than 400 entries. This year's theme was "Why is it important for my school to teach students about diversity?" Paige picked up her award at the Governor's Diversity Fair in Frankfort.