

Black Achievers mentors students

Several FCPS seniors participated in the YMCA Black Achievers student leadership program this year. Black Achievers works with local businesses and universities to pair students with adult mentors. The goal is to promote diversity and education advancement.

Rebekah Dailey of Henry Clay High School was named Youth Achiever of the Year. Other participants included:

From Bryan Station: Kiah Arnold, Sidney Hall, Precious Higgins, Montequa Jackson, Zuri Johnson, Tanisha Jones, Yasminee Miller-Hughes, Kenisha Rice, Jordan Rodgers, Tera Warren, Balinda Weathers, Jazmine Wilson.

From Henry Clay: Chad Davis, Jasmin Hamilton, Karneisha Johnson, Kelsey Meads, Dakota Simmons, Vashae Swope.

From Lafayette: Raven Darkomensah, Dione Johnson, Adrianna Lacey, Leenisha Marks, Georgette Ross, Brandie Searcy.

From Paul Laurence Dunbar: Norel Beatty, Martika Clark, Eric Cruse, Shantai Hocker-Calhoun, Saundria Sims, Devontae Washington, Demarkus Wilson.

From Tates Creek: Tyneka McDaniel.