

My daughter lost her cheerleading state ring when she cheered on Paul Laurence Dunbar's junior varsity team, almost four years ago. The two of us were very sad. So you can imagine when my daughter called me and said that they called her to the office and said that Mr. Steve Coofer had found her ring! He didn't have to turn it in, but he did. This might have been a small thing to some, but it was a big deal to us.
