

Kudos

To Lina Trullinger, a teacher at Bryan Station High School, who will travel to Washington, D.C., in June for the Supreme Court Summer Institute. Only 30 teachers nationwide were selected for the institute, which is co-sponsored by Street Law Inc. and the Supreme Court Historical Society. Trullinger will study recent court cases in detail and learn innovative ways to convey court-related information to her students.