

Kudos

To graduating International Baccalaureate students at Tates Creek High School. In the schools' first-ever round of testing last spring, 85 percent passed their IB exam (80 percent is about average, though it varies from school to school).