

Two among semifinalists in National Achievement competition

Catherine Christian from Lafayette High School and Jeromy Height from Tates Creek High School are among the more than 1,600 semifinalists in the National Achievement Scholarship Program.

In this academic competition for African-American high school students, Christian and Height are vying for scholarship money on the basis of their abilities, accomplishments and potential for academic success in college.

- More details:
www.fcps.net/news/press-releases/2008-09/nat'l-achievement-semis