

SkillsUSA tech students attend leadership institute

Two dozen students from Eastside and Southside technical centers attended a recent Kentucky Leadership Training Institute in Louisville, where they learned about leadership in the classroom and on the job site.

The SkillsUSA students, who were selected by their teachers for the conference, also competed in various categories including public speaking, creative problem-solving and critical thinking.

Fayette County winners from Eastside Tech included:

- 20-Second Elevator Story: 1st David McKenney, Lafayette High School; 3rd Zach Wisner, Lafayette.
- Overall Best Team: Ashley Stuckey, Bryan Station High School; Zach Wisner, Lafayette; (and Jesse Welch, Scott County High School).

Also attending from Eastside were Julio Alfaro and Monica Bryan from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School; A.J. Price from Tates Creek High School; and Ryan Sizemore and Zac Weston from Lafayette High School.

Southside's participants included Whitney Garlington, Chad Jones and Zack Blanchard of Lafayette High and Sarah Booth of Bryan Station High School.
