

My son plays in the Dunbar band. At the state championships, he lost a part to his trumpet. The Bates Creek High band director, Dee Bishop, asked a member of his band to loan us the part off his trumpet so my son could compete in the finals. (And one of the parents was willing to loan us his daughter's trumpet.) This shows their whole band program has a lot of class and is as big a winner as Lafayette or Dunbar.

Submitted by Ed Addison, Dunbar parent