

Kudos

To George McCormick, a district research specialist at It's About Kids Support Services, who has taken the reins as state president of Kentucky Association of Assessment Coordinators. He will preside at the next statewide conference, set for October 2009 in Louisville.