

Kudos

To the academic team at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School for placing second in one of nation's largest tournaments. Schools from seven states competed at Brookwood High near Atlanta, and the Bulldog team beat the reigning national champion, Dorman High School from South Carolina, in the semifinals. James Island High School, also from the Palmetto State, defeated Paul Laurence Dunbar in the title game – the team's only loss of the tournament.