

Equity Council is an advocate for all our students

Did you know that the school district has an Equity Council?

This council monitors and analyzes equity issues, advises the Fayette County Board of Education and advocates for achievement by all students. It fully supports the school district's effort and commitment to provide the means for every child to reach his or her maximum potential, assuring that no child is left behind.

- Who: The Equity Council advocates for all children regardless of their background and circumstances and represents the equity conscience of the community.
- When: The council meets at 6 p.m. the first Tuesday of the month.
- Where: It's About Kids Support Services, Conference Room C, 701 East Main Street
- Get involved: Meetings are open to the public and broadcast live on Channel 13.

To learn more, read about the Equity Council online, or call Chairman Jack Burch at (859) 244-2212.