

Bryan Station Middle earns Statesmanship Award

The Kentucky Youth Assembly group from Bryan Station Traditional Magnet School brought home the Statesmanship Award from a recent conference. The honor recognized Bryan Station as having the highest percentage of Outstanding Speakers nominated by teachers throughout the conference – 19 of its 12 kids were tapped.

In addition, Lauren Guilfoil won a plaque for individual outstanding speaker, and Davion Gray and Jamaal Gossett received certificates as first-year delegates.

The Bryan Station team also included Mary Kathryn Ball, Kara Fredlock, Marie Armbruster, Leighann Ball, Emma Guilfoil, Anna Winkler, Rebecca Hall, Jeremy Hostetler, Ben Armbruster, Michael Parsons, Adrian Scaife, Aaron Evans, Matthew Hostetler, DeMarcus Smiley, Seiku Whiting and Cheaho Pak.

Kentucky Youth Assembly, coordinated by the YMCA, is a student-led mock government. Students write bills, prepare speeches and are chosen for positions ranging from governor and parliamentarian to members of the press corps. The conference also includes a trip to the Capitol.
