

LTMS tops in Colonels' Showcase

Lexington Traditional Magnet School was the overall winner in the latest Kentucky Colonels' Sixth-Grade Showcase. The competition included quick recall and written assessments in the areas of science, social studies, math, language arts, and arts and humanities.

Winburn Middle School came in second, Beaumont was third, and Edythe J. Hayes finished fifth. Three other schools from outside Fayette County also participated.

"These students did an excellent job representing LTMS not only with their intellectual prowess but also by their exemplary behavior," said David J. Wilson, Latin teacher and academic team coach at LTMS.

In the quick recall contest, Fayette schools also swept the top three positions with LTMS taking first place, led by starters Elliott Beach, Alice Li, Will Walters and Eric Xiong. Winburn finished second, and Beaumont was third.
