

Eleven middle schoolers picked for honor choir

Congratulations to the 11 FCPS students selected for the Kentucky Music Educators Association's middle school honor choir:

- From Beaumont Middle: Gentry Arnold, second soprano; Lindsey Bell, second soprano; Haley Stone, second soprano.
- From Lexington Traditional Magnet: Ariel Mink, alto.
- From Morton Middle: Edie Brown, second soprano; Rachel Wilson, second soprano.
- From SCAPA at Bluegrass: Lewis Aldridge, bass; Caroline Balling, first soprano; Andrew Burton, bass; Emma Centers, first soprano; Sydney Jahnigen, first soprano.

The Kentucky Junior High Chorus is made up of about 200 seventh-, eighth- and ninth-graders who are chosen after auditions across the state. They will perform during the Kentucky Music Educators Association's in-service/professional development conference in Louisville, at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 5 in Whitney Hall at the Kentucky Center for the Arts.
