

Nine local players tapped for Border Bowl

The National Guard Border Bowl all-star game featured nine football players from Fayette County Public Schools:

- Bryan Station – Chase Blackburn, Earl McCann, Roy Philon and Muhammad Saifullah;
- Henry Clay – Sam Simpson;
- Lafayette – Gary Demus and Keenan Parker-Green;
- Paul Laurence Dunbar – Chris Douglas;
- Tates Creek – Heith Castle.

Kids from Kentucky and Tennessee squared off Jan. 17 at the University of the Cumberland's Memorial Stadium in Williamsburg. Kentucky emerged victorious over the Tennessee team with a 26-20 win. Read more about the game here.
