

Reinhold Nabar came into the front office at Garden Springs Elementary and spent time getting together an official list of his bus manifest. He then bought all 61 of his passengers a “winter gram” to wish them a Happy Winter Break. These cost $1 each, but that did not stop Rein from showing all his kids that he cares for them.

-- Submitted by Kari Gaddie, teacher