

My daughter was struggling with her homework and just having some challenges with her everyday assignments at Veterans Park Elementary. Her teacher, Emily Harris, has been staying after school with our daughter and giving her some one-on-one instruction. We really appreciate Ms. Harris giving her time and energy, and just going that extra mile for our daughter. Her grades have really improved as well as her self-respect.

– Submitted by a grateful parent