

Kudos

To Henry Clay High School Liberal Arts Academy students John Aroutiounian and Stella Strohmeier for being named contest winners at the Lafayette Chapter Sons of the American Revolution award banquet.

Sophomore John Aroutiounian earned the Rumbaugh Oration Award for his speech on “Freedom’s Rallying Cry” and senior Stella Strohmeier earned the Knight Essay Award for her essay on “The ‘End’ of the Revolution.” Both students presented their contest entries as part of the night’s program and were provided the SAR Chapter Award Certificate, the Award Medal, and a check for $150 each. The two now advance to the Kentucky Society Sons of the American Revolution state competition.
