

Henry Clay wrestler snags third state title

Matt Zarth, a senior wrestler at Henry Clay High School, has captured his third consecutive 119-pound state title. With the victory, Matt became Lexington's first three-time state champion.

Matt, who plans to attend Davidson College in North Carolina, finished with a 47-2 record.

Congratulations are also in order for Pat Milford, a junior at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, who was runner-up in the 103-pound division at the state wrestling championships. Pat finished the season with a 40-3 record.
