

Kudos

To the Bryan Station High School step team for helping to represent the Fayette County Public Schools with a performance at the Children's Advocacy Day in Frankfort. Also, kids from Veterans Park Elementary provided artwork to encourage legislators to keep children in mind. Roughly a dozen members of local, district and Kentucky PTA groups also participated in Advocacy Day, held Feb. 16 at the Capitol. Representatives from Fayette County included Liza Holland, Veterans Park Elementary PTA president and Kentucky PTA legislative team member; Debra Anderson, PTSA president at Bryan Station High School; and Freida Tussey, PTSA treasurer at Bryan Station High School.
