

Kudos

To three students who excelled in the Fayette County History Fair. The first-place winner was Harper Dawahare of Clays Mill Elementary for her entry exploring the Salem witch trials of 1692. Second was Sumaya Shalash of Dixie Elementary for her project on the U.S. Constitution. Third was Leander Ridgeway of Northern Elementary who recounted the Woolworth's sit-in in Greensboro, N.C., during the civil rights movement. Their projects will remain on display at the Lexington History Museum for a year.