

Paul Laurence Dunbar places 1st in state Governor's Cup

Paul Laurence Dunbar High School picked up the first-place trophy in the 2009 Governor's Cup state finals, and Henry Clay High School came in third. Winburn Middle School placed second in its division.

The Governor's Cup consists of eight events, including five written assessment exams (math, science, social studies, language arts and arts/humanities); composition or on-demand writing; quick recall, also known as quiz bowl; and future problem-solving.

Students from across Kentucky competed March 14-16 in Louisville. Top finishers included:

High school division:

- Mathematics: 1st place Connie Wu, Paul Laurence Dunbar High; 2nd place Brian Fei, Paul Laurence Dunbar High
- Social studies: 1st place Stephen Fritz, Henry Clay High; 2nd place Matt Bojanowski, Henry Clay High
- Language arts: 2nd place Victor Macrinici, Paul Laurence Dunbar High
- Arts/humanities: 1st place Matt Bojanowski, Henry Clay High; 3rd place Dan Richey, Henry Clay High
- Quick recall: 2nd place Paul Laurence Dunbar High

Middle school division:

- Mathematics: 1st place Vania Ma, Winburn Middle; 2nd place Valerie Sarge, Winburn Middle; 3rd place Jessie Li, Lexington Traditional Magnet
- Science: 3rd place Vania Ma, Winburn Middle
- Quick recall: 1st place Winburn Middle; 2nd place Lexington Traditional Magnet

To see the complete results, go to www.kaac.com/. Fayette County's high schools are in Region 11 and middle schools in Region 15.