

Grants still available for fee-based activities

Does your school still need money for a spring field trip or another fee-based activity with instructional value? “Opportunity to Excel” funds are still available for this semester through community services block grants.

- More details
- Application

For more information, contact Barbara Connor, the civil rights compliance officer for Fayette County Public Schools and liaison to the Equity Council.