

Kudos

To Lilian Rogers of Henry Clay High School, who has advanced to the National Forensic League's grand nationals, set for June in Alabama. Lilian qualified in the category of International Extemporaneous Speaking at the March 20-21 state tournament at Centre College.

Students competed in six speech and six debate contests, and two dozen kids from 12 Kentucky schools advanced to the nationals. Lilian is the only one from Fayette County Public Schools.

Jill Richardson and Emily Collier of Lafayette High School placed third in Duo Interpretation. They are first alternates for the national tournament.