

Students bring home honors from state science fair

Outstanding students represented Fayette County Public Schools well in the seventh annual Kentucky Science & Engineering Fair, held April 3-4 at Eastern Kentucky University. Among the top performers:

High School Division

- Best of Fair/Physical Sciences, 1st place, Shuang Xu, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- Best of Fair/Life Sciences, 1st place, Curtis Northcutt, Lafayette
- Animal Sciences, 1st place, Curtis Northcutt, Lafayette
- Behavioral Sciences, 1st place, Ann Cooper, Lafayette
- Chemistry, 1st place, Ilya Vinogradov, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- Medicine & Health, 1st place, Roshan Palli, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- Plant Sciences, 1st place, Allyssa Eliopoulos, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- Environmental Analysis, 1st place, Shuang Xu, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- American Psychological Society Award: Ann Cooper, Lafayette
- Stockholm Junior Water Prize: Shuang Xu, Paul Laurence Dunbar
- Governor's nomination to represent Kentucky at the National Science Camp: Ann Cooper, Lafayette, and Ilya Vinogradov, Paul Laurence Dunbar

Middle School Division

- Best of Fair/Physical Sciences, 2nd place, Richard Cooper, Morton Middle
- Behavioral Sciences, 1st place, Carl Chapman, LTMS
- Environmental Management, 1st place, Richard Cooper, Morton Middle
- Microbiology, 1st place, Adam Farman, Glendover Elementary
- Earth & Planetary Science, 1st place, Mahika Gupta, Beaumont Middle
- Physics & Astronomy, 1st place, Mitchell Kilgore, SCAPA
- Chemistry, 2nd place, Lucy Wan, Winburn Middle
- Navy Award: Conor Van Meter, SCAPA
- Air Force Award: Ella Barton, Morton Middle