

Fourteen pieces of art chosen for next year's calendar

The 2009-2010 school district calendar and family handbook will feature the artwork of these 14 students:

- Shaylee Allen, 2nd grade, Yates Elementary
- Thomas Brown, 8th grade, Southern Middle
- Maria Diaz, 5th grade, James Lane Allen Elementary
- William Ding, 1st grade, Athens-Chilesburg Elementary
- Ashley Elder, 12th grade, Bryan Station High
- Roland Guifarro, 4th grade, Mary Todd Elementary
- Atlanta Harrison, 3rd grade, Northern Elementary
- Hayley Hawkins, 12th grade, Lafayette High
- Jenna Helmburg, 2nd grade, Rosa Parks Elementary
- Louise Laiberg, 11th grade, Tates Creek High
- Teri Meaney, 6th grade, Tates Creek Middle
- Tommia Miller, 8th grade, Lexington Traditional Magnet
- Dadrien Taylor, kindergarten, Russell Cave Elementary
- Nathan Williams, 8th grade, Jessie Clark Middle

Art teachers turned in nearly 200 entries for the FCPS annual calendar art contest. Volunteers from the arts community judged the submissions, and the winners were unveiled April 23 at ArtsPlace, where the student artwork was on display all month.