

Kudos

To Henry Clay High School, which was tops in Kentucky in the spring Knowledge Master Open, an online competition run by software publisher Academic Hallmarks. Teams of students across the country turned to their computers April 22 to answer challenging questions, earning points for speed and accuracy.