

Kudos

To all our schools for participating in the WasteBusters recycling program. Superintendent Stu Silberman and Mayor Jim Newberry presented awards May 13 based on level of involvement (such as recycling teams, Dumpster dives and number of WasteBuster activities):

- Elite level: Arlington Elementary, Ashland Elementary, Athens-Chilesburg Elementary, Booker T. Washington Academy, Bryan Station Traditional Magnet School, Clays Mill Elementary, Dixie Elementary Magnet, Eastside Technical Center, the Family Care Center, Garden Springs Elementary, Glendover Elementary, Henry Clay High, Jessie Clark Middle School, Julius Marks Elementary, Lexington Day Treatment, Lexington Traditional Magnet School, Liberty Elementary, Maxwell Spanish Immersion Magnet, Meadowthorpe Elementary, Millcreek Elementary, Morton Middle, Northern Elementary, Paul Laurence Dunbar High, Picadome Elementary, Project Rebound, Rosa Parks Elementary, Russell Cave Elementary, Sandersville Elementary, SCAPA at Bluegrass, Southern Elementary, Southern Middle, Southside Technical Center, Stonewall Elementary, Tates Creek High, Tates Creek Middle, Veterans Park Elementary, William Wells Brown Elementary and Winburn Middle School.
- Champion level: Bryan Station High School, Cardinal Valley Elementary, Cassidy Elementary, Mary Todd Elementary and Yates Elementary.
- Grade level: Breckinridge Elementary (fourth grade), Lansdowne Elementary (third grade), Leestown Middle (seventh grade) and Tates Creek Elementary (grades K-2).
- Classroom level: Deep Springs Elementary (Dylan Paul's classroom) and Edythe J. Hayes Middle School (Family-Consumer Science class).
- Cafeteria/custodial level (recycling cardboard boxes, steel cans and office materials): Beaumont Middle, Crawford Middle, Edythe J. Hayes Middle, Harrison Elementary, James Lane Allen Elementary, Lafayette High, Martin Luther King Jr. Academy and Squires Elementary.