

FCPS kids excel in state's World Language Festival

Fayette County schools were well-represented at the 2009 statewide World Language Festival, sponsored by the Kentucky World Language Association. More than 1,500 students from across Kentucky participated May 16 at the University of Kentucky.

School results:

- Chinese (middle schools): First place, Crawford Middle; Second place, LTMS
- French (high schools): Second place, Lafayette High; Third place, Paul Laurence Dunbar High
- Latin (high schools): Third place, Henry Clay High
- Japanese (middle schools): First place, Jessie Clark Middle
- Spanish (high schools): Second place, Bryan Station High
- Spanish (middle schools): Third place, Bryan Station Middle

Individual results

The KWLA will host an awards ceremony Sept. 19 to recognize first-place winners in the high school language proficiency assessments.