

Kudos

To Ned Katz of Winburn Middle School, whose project “FDR and the New Deal” has been selected for display in the Behring Center at the Smithsonian’s National Museum of American History. Ned is among the Winburn students who will compete in the National History Day contests this summer.