

Kudos

To Rachel Williams of Tates Creek High School, who received a “distinguished” rating from judges at the Kentucky Music Educators Association’s state-level solo and ensemble festival in Richmond. Rachel, who performed the Mendelssohn violin concerto, is the first TCHS student to receive this distinction.