

I have a student in my third-grade classroom at Liberty Elementary whose mother doesn't speak English. She was supposed to bring a friend along to help translate, but the friend canceled on her. I e-mailed fellow teacher Sara Szwilski at 1:30 p.m. to ask if she could help me out at 2:45 p.m. She immediately said yes, she would be there to assist in the conference. What an amazing colleague to work with! Thanks again, Ms. Szwilski. I am honored to be on the same team as you!
